

Parent Questionnaire – Student’s Personal Characteristics

Please select the statement which most accurately describes your child.

Student name: _____

1. When asked a question, your child...
 - a. Poses further unexpected questions
 - b. Knows the answers
 - c. Sees exceptions
 - d. Repeats questions and information
2. How does your child respond to grades?
 - a. May be motivated
 - b. Is very motivated
 - c. Not motivated at all
 - d. Dislikes grades
3. When learning a new concept, your child...
 - a. Masters with repetition
 - b. Questions the need for mastery
 - c. Enjoys repetition
 - d. Masters with very little repetition
4. How would you describe your child's humour?
 - a. Relishes wild, off-the-wall humour
 - b. Creates complex, abstract humour
 - c. Misunderstands jokes involving social reciprocity
 - d. Understands complex, abstract humour
5. When working on a project/assignment your child...
 - a. Has many ideas but requires support to focus
 - b. Initiates more projects than will ever be completed
 - c. Initiates projects and extensions of assignments
 - d. Completes assignments on time
6. When working independently your child...
 - a. Is consistently attentive
 - b. Is focused on specific areas of interest
 - c. Daydreams, may seem off task
 - d. Is selectively mentally engaged
7. When working as part of a group, your child feels they are
 - a. Beyond the group
 - b. In their own group
 - c. Performing at the top of the group
 - d. Apart from the group
8. Socially, your child...
 - a. Prefers the company of creative peers but may often work alone
 - b. Enjoys the company of age peers
 - c. Often works alone
 - d. Prefers the company of intellectual peers
9. When asked a question, your child...
 - a. Distracted by many other possibilities
 - b. Injects new possibilities
 - c. Answers questions in detail
 - d. Ponders with depth and multiple perspectives
10. When your child reflects on their learning, they are
 - a. Challenged with self-reflection
 - b. Pleased with own learning
 - c. Self-critical
 - d. Never finished with possibilities

Thank you for completing this questionnaire.